COMICS . CARDS . MINIATURES

2011 is a BIG Year!

Here at Hidden Keep we are continually listening to what our customers ask of us, so we have revamped our whole playing schedule to give you the player more of what you and others like you have requested.

For our Table Top (Miniature) Players we have started our Learners Leagues in both Warhammer40K and Warmachine/Hordes. These Leagues are made to help our players learn and grow by starting off with small armies that gradually increase over time. From January to March we will be running 15 Point Armies in Warmachine/Hordes and 800 Point Armies of Warhammer 40K. This will increase to 25 Points and 1000 Points respectively in April, 35 Points and 1200 Points in July, and finishing the year with 50 Points and 1500 Points starting in October. We have quite a few people that are interested in participating, so make sure you check our Events calendar to find out when your tournaments are.

For our Comic Book Collectors we have begun to send out notices each Sunday of what you can expect to be in your box and what is already there in the coming week.

For our Magic Players we have started running multiple Free Tournaments which include Thursday Standard, Saturday Block, and Wednesday & Saturday EDH/Commander formats. Prizes are given out in the form of Promo cards etc. We have also started running a Booster Draft on Saturday's in which the entry fee is 3 packs to draft with (These can be from your winnings throughout the week, or available to purchase at the store.)

Thanks again to all of you who make the store possible and remember to Keep Gaming!
